9 May 1960

Mr. Dulles:
General Cabell:

40-3674

Mr. Oliver Gale, Special Assistant to the Secretary of Defense, called and advised that the Associated Press is interested in doing a story on Soviet Intelligence Collection Activities. Mr. Gale, who said he had discussed this with General Erskine, thought that this would help put the recent incident into better perspective and wanted the name of an Agency person that the AP could contact.

I advised Mr. Gale that I would relay his message to you. I also told him there would be no point in having the AP contact this Agency at this time. I alerted [redacted] to the possibility of an approach and gave him the name of the AP reporter - one Ben Price.
